

Heritage Classical Academy

recovering the past, restoring the future

Job Title: Grammar School Teacher (4th or 5th)

Job Type: Full-Time

Department: Grammar School

Reports to: Head of School

OVERVIEW

Heritage Classical Academy provides an excellent Christ-centered classical education to the students of Stanly County. Starting with kindergarten in fall 2020 and adding a grade each year, Heritage Classical Academy will be a thriving K-12 school that cultivates kingdom citizens who will serve to rebuild, restore, and renew their families, their communities, and the generations, now and to come.

We have an opening for a Grammar School Teacher who desires to join a growing, learning, and vibrant Christ-centered classical school community. This person will be supported by a shared Classroom Aide, working as a team to teach and shepherd our students.

QUALIFICATIONS

Successful candidates will:

- Have a love for students, a passion for teaching, and embrace our school's Statement of Faith, Mission and Vision.
- Hold a Bachelor's degree or equivalent work experience. However, candidates with comparable work and/or life experience will be considered.
- Serve as a positive influence within the culture and community of the school and Stanly County.
- Cultivate a joy of learning by using classical methodologies, as well as employing excellent classroom management, communication, and organizational skills.
- Possess the desire and ability to learn and teach using classical education methodology based on a biblical worldview.
